

Row erupts over gypsy site consultation venue

A HUGE row has erupted over the venue chosen for a crucial October 1st public consultation event about using a redundant Army camp in Weymouth as a possible site for travellers.

West Dorset District Council (WDDC) is strongly urging residents to attend the 4.30pm-7pm event in the Victory Hall at Putton Lane, Chickerell, so their comments and opinions can be collated with different comments about seven other extra possible traveller sites elsewhere in Dorset.

But Weymouth and Portland's Labour councillors have savagely criticised WDDC for choosing the Victory Hall as a venue because the old Army camp is nearly three miles away off Camp Road in Wyke Regis.

They accused the neighbouring authority of running a "flawed" public consultation after West Dorset identified the disused camp as one potential location for an "authorised transit-site".

Government legislation means all Dorset councils - including Weymouth and Portland - must identify and prepare such sites to help ease difficulties posed by illegal encampments and, before a site can be approved, councils must undertake a thorough consultation with local residents.

Angry Labour councillors claim that, while the land is within West Dorset, it is Weymouth residents who will shoulder the burden placed on local facilities.

But WDDC has refused requests by borough and county Labour councillors to set up a consultation with Weymouth and Portland residents and members are furious that the venue for people to comment is right out at Chickerell and inaccessible by public transport.

Weymouth and Portland Mayor Councillor Kate Wheller, who represents Wyke Regis, said it was "totally unacceptable" not to consult Weymouth residents.

She added: "The proposed site may well fall within West Dorset but it is only accessible via Wyke Regis. More importantly it will result in additional pressure being put on facilities located in and used by residents of Wyke Regis and the wider Weymouth area."

Colleague, Councillor Craig Martin, said: "One major concern is the pressure on school places. There are several schools that this proposal will impact and, due to changes in school funding, the need to identify additional places could have significant financial implications. This alone should highlight the need for proper consultation with affected residents."

Councillor Lucy Hamilton, whose Westham West ward includes nearby Lanehouse, urged West Dorset to reconsider and said: "It's a waste of time

...how you can help those fighting for survival

ACTOR Lloyd Gorman recently starred at the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis, taking on the lead role in the Shanty Theatre Company's summer production of 'The Story Giant'.

The play, based on the poem by Brian Patten, is about to be taken on tour with Dorchester, Weymouth and Bridport among the upcoming venues.

Lloyd was born in Chile but brought up in Norwich and has lived in London for the past 10 years.

● WHAT attracted you to a career in acting?

I enrolled into the Norwich Theatre Royal Arts Course at the age of nine to try and build confidence and meet new people. I stayed with that youth theatre for 10 years, developing skills and performing in all sorts of productions. Although I initially wanted to pursue a career in music, it soon became clear that acting was my focus. From my mid-teens I started to think seriously about attending drama school and committing myself to a career in acting.

● WHERE did you study?

I trained at Rose Bruford college in Sidcup on their unique actor musicianship programme. The use of actor musicians is extremely popular, and therefore there is a lot of work for it. It also means I can combine acting with music to tell a story; something that I wasn't aware I could do when I was younger.

● WHY did you join the Shanty Theatre Company?

I have known Tim Bell (one of the Artistic directors of both Shanty Theatre Company and the Marine Theatre) for a long time, as we both attended the same youth theatre in Norwich. I have followed Shanty's work since their inception and have always been impressed with their work ethic and output. They invited me to audition for 'The Story Giant' and I was delighted to be offered it.

● HAVE you been in any of their previous productions?

I haven't, but I saw both 'A Rats Tale' and 'The Rime of the Ancient Mariner'. I enjoyed both of them and it was interesting to see how the company had changed through the years.

● WHAT do you enjoy about playing the 'Story Giant'?

'The Story Giant' is a complex being. Frustrated, angry, saddened and desperate at his mortality. However, through this he is funny, witty and cheeky. It's these complexities of character that I enjoy about playing the Story Giant... and it is fun to be on stilts for two hours a night!

● WHAT did you like about performing at the Marine Theatre?

I came to the Marine Theatre in July 2008 on a tour of 'Treasure Island'. It was my favourite venue on that tour for many different reasons, but mainly because of the warmth of the audience that attended. That warmth was present throughout our entire run of 'The Story Giant' at the Marine Theatre. It's a beautiful building in a beautiful setting, you can never get bored of the view from the dressing room.

● WHAT is your favourite role to date?

I find every role has its enjoyable elements, and have been enjoyable in different ways. If I had to choose one it would be the Beadle in 'Sweeney Todd' by Stephen Sondheim at The Octagon Theatre, Bolton. That is not my favourite because of the role specifically, but mainly because I love the show itself.

● WHAT would be your dream role?

My dream role would be Roy Cohn in the play 'Angels in America' by Tony Kushner.

● WHAT is the last book you read, film you watched, album you listened to?

The last book I read was 'Ham on Rye' by Charles Bukowski. The last film I watched was 'The Grand Budapest Hotel' and the last album I listened to was called 'This is the 3rd album of a band called Adebisi Shank' by Adebisi Shank.

● WHICH three people would you invite to your dream dinner party, and why?

I'd invite Tom Waits for his songs, and notebook of interesting facts (Lobsters don't have a posable thumbs). Spike Milligan for gags and poetry and Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy because they created some of my favourite moments in film. I realise that I've chosen four people when you asked for three, but you can't invite Laurel without Hardy!

The Shanty Theatre Company will be bringing 'The Story Giant' to Dorchester Arts Centre on October 1st, The Bay Theatre in Weymouth on October 23rd and Bridport Arts Centre on October 25th, as well as other venues in the area and across the country. Anger at gypsy site consultation and money holding a consultation in Chickerell. We have residents at Lanehouse, at Littlesea and in Wyke who will want to give their views and to discuss with council officers. There are properties just inches away from the proposed site while the consultation is miles away."

Labour councillors said they believe the consultation process simply does not take account of the community it needs to engage and Mrs Wheller said: "Many residents likely to be affected by the proposal are elderly or on low incomes. Many won't be able to access the venue in Chickerell, nor will they be able to access the online consultation. This isn't a fair or proper consultation."

The old Army camp is one of eight sites suggested during a first public consultation more than two years ago. They are now the subject of a second public consultation as part of the Dorset-wide Gypsy, Traveller and Travelling Showpeople Site Allocations Joint Development Plan Document.

All Dorset councils are working together to plan for the site needs of gypsies, travellers and travelling showpeople across Dorset to be identified in the document, which will eventually be adopted by each individual council across the county.

Other sites include the Old Chapel Yard at Marshwood, a former guardhouse at Piddlehinton and former highway land near West Stafford, Dorchester.

No decisions have been made yet on site options.

Elaine Whyte, one of three West Dorset councillors for Chickerell urged residents to attend the Victory Hall and said: "People should go and put their views forward. I will be guided by my constituents."

"I don't think it will be particularly popular. These sites never are. Wherever is chosen, it will allow the authorities to move travellers on to a legal site."

"It is all about consultation. At the end of the day, none of the sites may be suitable."

"If the old Army camp meets the criteria then it will have to be seriously considered, but people must make their views known in advance."

"I feel there is a need for more traveller sites. It is just a question of where they should be sited and how local residents feel about them."

Colleague and West Dorset District Council vice-chairman Jean Dunseith said: "I cannot see myself that the old army camp is a good place for travellers because of the roads to it which are really not very good."

"But we have to try and be open-minded and I will be attending the consultation event - and I hope as many other residents as possible will as well - so I can make my mind up. It is all about letting people know what is being considered so they can comment."

Chickerell's third district councillor, Ian Gardner, also urged people to attend the October 1st consultation and said: "People should go along, find out information and make sure their views are taken into account."

"It is a very important local issue and people should make the effort to attend and get their opinion recorded."

Spacial and community policy manager Hilary Jordan said that those who wish to comment for the consultation can find details on www.dorset-foryou.com/travellerpitches. Copies of all documents are also available at council offices, libraries and at consultation events including Wednesday, October 1st from 11am-2pm at South Walks House, South Walks Road, Dorchester, and from 4.30pm-7pm at Victory Hall, Putton Lane, Chickerell.

Online comments can be submitted using the link above or in writing by October 24th to: Gypsy, Traveller and Travelling Showpeople Consultation 2014, County Hall, Dorchester, Dorset DT1 1XJ.

Dorset councils will only consider comments by respondents who provide their names and contact addresses. Inappropriate, offensive or racist comments will not be acceptable and in extreme cases may be referred to the police.

Men arrested for racial abuse

THREE men have been arrested and released on bail after an alleged incident of racial verbal abuse in Weymouth.

Police said that at about 4pm on Saturday, September 6th, officers received a report that three men were shouting racially threatening and abusive words along The Esplanade.

Sergeant Steve Yeoman, of the Weymouth Safer Neighbourhood Team said: "The Esplanade was very busy at that time and the incident would have been witnessed by a lot of people."

"Several members of the public have already spoken to police regarding the incident as many of them felt extremely offended. The Esplanade was full of families with young children who were visibly upset."

"I appeal for witnesses to come forward and contact Dorset Police to help with this investigation."

Two Weymouth men, aged 26 and 45, and a 34-year-old Dorchester man were arrested on suspicion of using racially aggravated threatening and abusive words and released on bail pending further enquiries.

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101, quoting incident number 06:347 or call Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111.

Church hosts community fun day

MORE than 500 people attended a community fun day hosted by Weymouth Baptist Church.

The free event at the Nothe Gardens included a giant marquee inside which entertainment was provided by the Oddments Theatre Company, WOW, Rock Choir and the Legomen.

Outside spectators could enjoy a huge range of children's games from a bouncy castle to sumo suit wrestling, face painting, hair braiding and skittles.

Pastor Peter Mockett said: "I am very pleased because church folk have really got together this day."

"We had support from Air 107.2 radio station which broadcast live from the event and we had a free barbecue and cakes provided by church members. We must thank the Nothe Gardens community for their support and for coming along to enjoy the day."

Arsonists strike car park buildings

ARSONISTS have set fire to a groundsman's hut, changing rooms and storage area in a car park at the Marsh playing fields off Knightsdale Road, Weymouth.

Police said the incident happened at around 00.20am on September 17th when offenders ignited an accelerant between a cabin and a nearby wooden building causing them both to catch fire.

The cabin and its contents were completely destroyed by the fire while the nearby building was severely damaged. No-one has been arrested.

PC Neil Fitch, of Weymouth Police said: "It is very fortunate no one was injured in this fire. The consequences could have been far worse."

"I am keen to talk to three male teenagers who were seen leaving the car park when the fire service arrived. They may be witnesses and have information that can assist with the investigation. I urge them to come forward."

"Anyone who saw any suspicious activity in the area at the time is asked to contact the police on 101 as soon as possible. All calls are treated in the strictest confidence."

Weymouth and Portland community facilities spokesman Councillor Ian Bruce said: "This fire has damaged a valuable facility which is particularly used by young people in our community."

"It is senseless and I hope anyone with any information contacts the police immediately. The borough council is temporarily storing the goals, nets and other football equipment."

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101 quoting incident number 17:09 or call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111.

Businesses nominated for top tourism awards

THIRTY-EIGHT of Dorset's leading tourism businesses have been selected as finalists in this year's Dorset Tourism Awards, which will be presented at The Tank Museum, Bovington on October 16th.

The Dorset Tourism Awards were launched in 2013, and have gone to new heights this year with an increase in both categories and entries.

Each entry has been evaluated and scored by tourism professionals and a programme of visits were carried out, leading to recommendations for each category.

Finally these recommendations were considered by an independent panel. Finalists were selected from across the county with businesses from Lyme Regis, Weymouth, Bridport, Beaminster, Charmouth, and Dorchester among the list.

Andrew Alder of headline sponsors Saffery Champness, and a member of the judging panel, said: "We have been delighted by the high standard of entrants and the quality of their submissions."

"It's quite clear from all the hard work and commitment of the businesses involved that these awards have captured the imagination of the regional tourism industry and the accolades they bring."

Finalists must now wait until the Dorset Tourism Awards ceremony to find out whether they have won Gold, Silver or Bronze awards.

Successful businesses in the Dorset Awards will automatically be considered for the South West Tourism Excellence Awards in February 2015 and then possibly go on to represent Dorset at the National Enjoy England Awards later in the year.

Last few tickets remain for town beer festival

THIRSTY drinkers have stampeded to buy tickets for the 2014 Weymouth Beer Festival with more than 1,000 of the 1,400 available already sold.

The Campaign for Real Ale warned that demand was so heavy the event on October 3rd-4th might sell out soon.

The rush of eager drinkers has been prompted by the lure of 5,040 pints of real ale from 70 different casks as well as 12 ciders and perries at the Weymouth Pavilion Ocean Room venue.

CAMRA spokesman Michel Hooper-Immins said: "CAMRA members from all over England will be in Weymouth for the festival which is good news for local shops, hotels, restaurants and cafes as they and their families spend money in the town."

Sessions include 11am-3pm and 6pm-11pm on both days with tickets costing £5 for Friday and Saturday evenings and £3 for the remaining Friday lunchtime tickets.

They are being sold by West Dorset CAMRA online at www.camraw-dorset.org.uk/October-fest.htm or from The Boot, The Globe and Charlbury Food and Wine in Weymouth and the Blue Riddle at Dorchester. Weymouth Pavilion box office on 01305 783225 has a supply as has Dave Harris on 01305 772286.

will provide reliable and consistent data to underpin the development of future flood defence schemes.

Civil engineers Jackson Hyder, working with contractor Geotechnics Limited, started ground investigations around Weymouth Harbour, Weymouth Esplanade and Weymouth town centre earlier this month.

The work, which is programmed to take approximately six weeks, will involve drilling 21 boreholes 10-13 metres deep and installation of ground water monitoring instruments. It is anticipated each borehole will take two to three days to complete, depending on ground and weather conditions.

The council's consultants and contractors aim to minimise disruption, but as the work will involve drilling some noise will be unavoidable.

Some of the borehole locations may also be on or close to the road and temporary traffic management may be required for both pedestrians and vehicles.

Residents and businesses likely to be affected have been sent letters about the work.

The £300,000 study is funded by the Environment Agency.

Vandals attack van

VANDALS have damaged a van which was parked in a lay-by.

Between 6pm on September 6th and 9am on September 7th offenders damaged a Vauxhall van parked in a lay-by on Lanehouse Rocks Road, Weymouth, using a sharp object to scratch the bodywork down one side of the vehicle.

Police are asking for witnesses to this incident to phone 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 quoting Crime Number 037049.

Councillor Ian Roebuck, Brief Holder for Environment and Sustainability, said: "These works are extremely important in identifying what strategies need to be put in place to ensure Weymouth can deal with rising sea levels.

"This is the next step is understanding the geology and relationship between groundwater and tide levels, and is part of a major study to guide our plans to develop comprehensive sea defences in the future.

"I would like to thank residents and businesses for their cooperation and apologise for any inconvenience caused during the work."

Commissioner tackles crime issues at public engagement

A CATALOGUE of crime issues was aired when Police and Crime Commissioner Martyn Underhill came to Weymouth to host the first of a series of Community Days in Dorset.

His audience at the Community Fire Station talked with him about everything from traveller sites, van crime and noisy parties to street drinking, speeding, reporting crime and peeing in the seafront underpass.

He responded to comments by Councillor Bill White about travellers to say 2014 incidents were down on 2013.

Peter Barrow talked about van crime – his son lost tools from a van – and asked if anything was being done about it and Mr Underhill said he understood the problem and that he knew of one plumber who lost so many tools when his van was broken in to that it cost him his job. One way of combatting thieves was to reverse the van up against a wall to prevent theft.

Recent headlines that some areas of the country had people being asked to investigate their own crimes saw Mr Underhill reply that Dorset didn't screen its crimes, adding: "I do believe police attendance at crimes is massively important."

But he said officers should not be sent to every crime because sometimes people didn't want officers to attend their home. He cited neighbour disputes and rape as two incidents where those involved often didn't want police to attend their home but preferred to come and talk about it at a police station.

Ken Whatley agreed and said many elderly

hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

people didn't want police coming to their home.

Councillor Christine James highlighted noisy parties in the Westham area, but Mr Underhill said this was not a police issue, adding: "You are not going to be happy with that but we don't make the law."

Mrs James was told that environmental health officers did provide a service to deal with such incidents which could include confiscating equipment.

Police Community Support Officer Dave Hill said reported crime and anti-social behaviour was down although there had been a spike in street drinking in Weymouth which had been tackled through a recent police campaign.

Mr Underhill said talks had started about the possibility of "wet houses" in Weymouth to deal with street drinkers by providing somewhere for them to go.

There was debate about a possible 20mph speed limit being considered for the Westham estate and Mrs James said five volunteers were needed to be trained to use speed gun devices for Community Speedwatch.

Councillor Francis Drake added that St Mary Street had a problem with speeding taxis and Mrs James said there was really no need for them to use the street.

Friends of Lodmoor Country Park chairman Dinah Ellis said they had tried to use the 101 phone line to report a piece of park equipment being damaged but were told it wasn't their park, it wasn't their equipment and the call couldn't be logged. She said they wanted to work with police but what could they do to improve the situation?

Mr Underhill replied that it was the first time he had ever been told about refusal to log such a call. Police needed to learn from this because "it is not an acceptable thing to say" and he reassured Mrs Ellis that such incidents could be phoned in.

Other issues raised included car vandalism, CCTV and the need to have a standardised system and better use of police buildings, Mr Underhill also saying No Excuse speeding campaigns were "not a cash cow" but a means to "stop people dying on the roads".

Mr Underhill had earlier visited Asda, the Community Alcohol and Drug Advisory Service at Weymouth Community Hospital, Weymouth Police Station and Westham Children's Centre.

He told View From: "This Weymouth meeting is the first of a series of community days to help us meet the public."

He added that the biggest positive to come out of the day was improved visitor engagement while the biggest negatives were complaints about vandalism and difficulties with the police 101 phone system, the latter possibly being caused by sharply increased use.

Mr Underhill said: "It is really important for people to understand that I am their voice. The more people who get used to this the more we can change policing. That's why these days are so massively important."

MARTYN Underhill meets families at Westham Children's Centre

Praise for community projects

DORSET Police and Crime Commissioner Martyn Underhill has praised drug and alcohol services in Weymouth for their work in helping those affected by alcohol and drugs misuse.

The PCC met staff and volunteers at the Community Alcohol Drug Advisory Service (CADAS) on Melcombe Avenue and EDP on Belle Vue Road and said: "I am delighted to see these services up and running. The outcomes that CADAS and EDP are delivering are important for people in Weymouth."

"I thank them for the inspirational work they do in offering people in difficulty the prospect of hope, recovery and a bright future. These inspirational projects are assisting people in their recovery journey and are helping them to move forward."

Mr Underhill also visited Westham Children's Centre on Radipole Lane where he met parents and children from the Westham area who were attending a pirate party.

He said: "These services are making a real difference to many people's lives and are helping to build a strong community spirit. I am pleased to see first hand this remarkable work and just how vital the support of staff and volunteers can be to local families."

He also met staff at Weymouth Police Station and closed the day with a public meeting and surgery.

Streets get freaky for spooktacular Halloween event

WEYMOUTH Business Improvement District is launching Freaky Streets, a Hallowe'en celebration providing lots of fun activities for the half term break in October.

Freaky Streets follows on from the very successful Halloween Spooktacular which was held in 2013.

Visitors to the event will be invited to take part in a hunt for Freaky Friends around the town starting on October 25th and ending on Freaky Friday, October 31st, when a host of Halloween themed happenings will keep families entertained between 10am-4pm.

These will include Freaky skateboard-ing and a workshop, storytelling, balloon making and hula hoop displays as well as a chance for children to join in pavement art, freaky circus skills, plus a freaky fancy dress competition.

The "Freaky Streets Trail" forms will be available to download from the new WeAreWeymouth.co.uk website nearer the time.

Businesses will be invited to create the Best Freaky Window Display which will be judged by the public and will encourage staff to join in the fun by dressing up for Freaky Friday.

Weymouth businesses should contact Paul Mills at the Weymouth BID office 01305-779410 or email info@weymouthbid.co.uk if they would like to take part in the event.

Weymouth BID manager Nigel Reed said: "We have lots of exciting new additions to this year's Freaky Streets event and the BID directors have been working very hard to ensure that they are adding value to the event by attracting more visitors to the town and providing first class entertainment for the whole family."

Further information for businesses can be found on www.weymouth-bid.co.uk.

Regency fans help break world record in Bath

■ LOCAL historical costumier Natalie Garbett and Rachel Knowles from Wyke Regis in costume

A WEYMOUTH woman has taken part in a successful attempt to break the world record for the number of people gathered in one place while dressed in Regency costume.

Rachel Knowles from Wyke Regis attended a gathering held in the Assembly Rooms, Bath, as part of the annual Jane Austen Festival.

It attracted 550 men, women and children, all in Regency attire, who had to remain in the same place for five minutes to claim the record.

The previous official Guinness World Record was also set in Bath, by 409 people in 2009.

In July this year an American festival claimed to have set a new record - although this was not ratified - and it has now been beaten by the assembly in Bath. The number would have been even higher had not some people been caught up in traffic.

Immediately after the World Record was set, almost 600 people, including Rachel, promenaded through the Georgian city of Bath.

The parade included soldiers carrying muskets, naval officers and hundreds of women wearing Regency gowns and bonnets.

During the parade, Rachel spent a few moments chatting with Adrian Lukis, who played the roguish Mr Wickham in the BBC's 1995 adaptation of Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice, which also starred Colin Firth.

Rachel's historically accurate Regency costume was made by local historical costumier Natalie Garbett, who also took part in the parade.

Rachel is currently finalising her first novel, a Georgian romance, set partially in Weymouth. She is also a historical blogger, writing the popular RegencyHistory.net blog.

■ TICKETS will be on sale at the door when a concert of music by Dorset composer and songwriter Vanessa Young (pictured) is held at St Mary's Church, Weymouth on Saturday, October 4th, at 7.30pm.

It will very much be a Dorset event because Vanessa's music is being performed by pianist Duncan Honeybourne and soprano Abbi Temple, both of whom are very well known locally as well as nationally.

Vanessa's music is deeply rooted in the area.

Her work has been performed by the Weymouth Choral Society, the Portland Singers and the Yeovil Chamber Choir among others.

The presenter, Richard Jones-Barry, also has a strong local following.

Councillors back plans for 62 homes in quarry

By Harry Walton
hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

PLANNERS have granted outline permission for a scheme to build 62 new homes in a disused quarry on Portland.

The proposed development by Portland Stone Firms (PSF) involves a mix of two and three-bedroom houses and flats at Bottom Combe quarry off Park Road.

Members of Weymouth and Portland planning committee were told that a similar plan for the site was rejected last year but that the new plan had dealt with a number of issues and concerns.

Richard Burgess for PSF said they had worked with planning officers to resolve those issues and the development was sustainable in terms of access to facilities.

Councillor Margaret Leicester said: "It is going to be very difficult to refuse this. The Local Plan is not supporting us as it has not been adopted."

"I am glad to see wildlife areas and buffer zones from quarry development being talked about because they are a necessary evil where you have quarrying taking place near residential development."

She added that she was still concerned about Portland's infrastructure with people having to wait seven to ten days for a doctor's appointment and an extra 1,000 island homes planned in the next few years which would increase the strain on health services, but she would support the scheme.

Councillor Paul Kimber said that "the Devil is in the detail with this development" and he was concerned about stone dust coming in to new homes and the need for trees while Councillor Sandy West said she would back the scheme "with a heavy heart" but it was "a very difficult decision" and she was concerned about extra traffic coming through Easton, bits of Portland being eroded and the island becoming "one giant building site".

But Councillor Anne Kenwood voted against the development because she was "very concerned about building all over Portland" and because she felt people were "losing the character of the island".

She added that she was also concerned about transport with only one access on and off Portland, the new homes creating even more traffic, but colleagues then voted 10-1 in favour of the scheme subject to a Section 106 agreement and various conditions including contamination, boundaries and drainage.

Son saves dad's life thanks to 'sheer luck'

A ST JOHN Ambulance volunteer from Portland has told how "sheer luck" meant he could deliver lifesaving first aid to his dad.

Jonathon Neal, 28, took a portable automated external defibrillator (AED) home with him for safe keeping after helping the first aid charity provide cover for the Round the Rock 10k fun run last month.

So when his dad, Chris, 64, suffered a cardiac arrest later that evening, the AED was exactly the piece of equipment Jonathon needed to save his life.

Jonathon, who has volunteered with St John Ambulance for six years and who works as an electrician for Manor Marine, said: "I was in bed when my mum came and got me. Fortunately she used to be a nurse and knew dad was in trouble because of the way he was struggling to breathe in his sleep.

"I assessed dad's condition - he was unconscious and responsive to pain but nothing else - so I ran downstairs to grab my first aid kit and defibrillator as well as calling an ambulance.

"I got the AED on him pretty quickly and administered two shocks to get dad's heart back into a normal sinus rhythm."

It was the first time Jonathon had used one on a patient despite having practised using a defibrillator many times.

By Harry Walton

hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

He said: "At St John Ambulance we train for this kind of situation all the time but you always hope it will never happen. I just thought 'this is as serious as it gets' and got on with my job.

"I knew dad's life was at stake, but I had to put that to the back of my mind and focus on giving CPR (cardio-pulmonary resuscitation), keeping his airway clear and making sure I could give the best possible handover to the ambulance crew.

"It was sheer luck that I had the AED with me, but I'm so glad that I did and I feel very fortunate to have had my training with St John Ambulance because, thanks to all that we've still got my dad."

Chris, who suffers with chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD) and had a stent fitted after a heart attack just one week before the night of his cardiac arrest, wasn't out of the woods yet.

The following morning, at hospital in Dorchester, his heart arrested five times before drug treatments stabilised his condition.

After having a combined pacemaker and defibrillator fitted, he is now recovering at home and grateful for a new lease of life thanks to Jonathon's swift actions.

Chris, who works for the Royal Mail and is now recovering at home, said: "What a fluke! I remember nothing about what happened.

"I thought I was doing well after having my stent. I'd gone to bed as normal, but I came round four days later in Dorchester Hospital.

"The nurses said if it hadn't been for Jonathon using the defibrillator, I wouldn't have stood a chance - I would never have woken up at all."

In the UK, one person suffers a cardiac arrest every two minutes and as many as one in three will die before they reach hospital. But survival rates increase by more than 50 per cent if a defibrillator is used within the first four minutes.

Now, father and son, who are members of Wareham Town Band and play the trombone and cornet, respectively, are looking forward to a comeback gig, next month.

Chris said: "I'm well on the road to recovery and feeling better every day. I just want to carry on living from where I left off only bigger and better."

For more information on St John Ambulance's work, including how to become a volunteer, details of training courses and how to buy equipment including AEDs, visit www.sja.org.uk or call 08700 10 49 50.

Theatre tickets are buy one get one free!

PORTLAND'S Royal Manor Theatre will be staging Kes as their next play.

It has been adapted by Robert Allen Evans from the novel by Barry Hines, the classic A Kestrel for a Knave, and explores the world of Billy, the central character from Ken Loach's much-loved 1969 film, Kes.

Billy, at 15, sees no future ahead but the bleak prospect of working in the mines like his brother before him. Kes tells the story of a day in the life of Billy and of how his love for a fellow-creature, his tame kestrel, brings him joy, hope and despair in his search for an escape from his seemingly inevitable future.

Kes will be performed from Monday, October 6th, to Saturday, October 11th.

All evening shows start at 7.30pm and tickets are being sold in pairs, meaning that buying one provides another absolutely free. Each pair of tickets will cost £8 and can be bought from Danny's in Fortuneswell, Cards & Celebrations in Easton or on-line at www.rmtcportland.co.uk.

Community brightens up building site

A MURAL of an undersea scene has been officially unveiled on security hoardings for a homes development at Weymouth's old fire station site on Boot Hill.

The mural has been created by artist Peter Sheridan for the Volunteer Centre Dorset (VCD) which commissioned his artwork to make Weymouth a brighter place for residents.

VCD spokesman Siobhan Davis said: "We work with people with learning difficulties and they joined in with Peter to create this mural.

"I think it is wonderful, really eye-catching, and it has really brightened up what otherwise would just have been dull hoardings."

Funding for the VCD project was arranged by Weymouth and Portland community development worker Julie Hursthouse who said: "It was money well spent because it looks lovely and shows off Weymouth's talents at the same time.

"We would also like to thank site developer McCarthy & Stone, Synergy Housing and Working With You for making financial contributions towards the project.

"This mural is just the latest in a series of similar plans we have for the whole town centre."

The Christian Column

AS I SEE IT ...

by Geoff Treleven

Too religious

THE Apostle Paul had been sent by the brothers to Athens for his safety. He had left instructions that Silas and Timothy should join him there as soon as possible. While awaiting their arrival, Paul was greatly distressed as the city was full of idols. Apparently the population numbered about 10,000 and there were some 30,000 statues of gods in the city. But then they added a statue to "an unknown god" in case they had missed one!

It seems that a group of philosophers spent all their time at Mars Hill debating and looking for something new. They were intrigued to find out what strange god the Apostle Paul was talking about. That gave Paul the opportunity to proclaim Jesus Christ as the God who they ought to worship instead of idols.

While living in a city full of idols may sound strange to us, I often hear a very common expression of surprise! "oh my god" seems to roll off the tongue quite naturally. Without wishing to offend anyone, I would like to ask: "Who is your God?"

The only One we are commanded to worship is Our Lord Jesus Christ. He alone is worthy of our worship.

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

The Christmas clock is ticking

YOU can't go anywhere now without the dreaded "C" word appearing as shops gear themselves up for Christmas.

I love Christmas but not in September and certainly not in June when I saw the first Christmas cards being put out on shelves.

I've commented before on this commercial blurring of the seasons and, once you actively go out and look for Christmas stuff, it is amazing just how much of it is already out there.

Some butchers have Christmas meat posters up while many charity shops in Weymouth already have stocks of Christmas cards on display for the early festive shopper.

Elsewhere you can already buy tinsel while, most telling of all, there are blank display areas in some stores and garden centres, waiting to be filled with everything from log reindeers to illuminated Santas which sing Jingle Bells or go "Ho! Ho! Ho!" Just writing those festive words makes me feel a bit queasy.

Fortunately I learnt my lesson long ago and I've always kept a gentle eye out for a good present during the year so I don't find myself trapped in the shops stampede of ill will to all men, all women and: "Hands off that! I saw it first."

For those of you counting, Christmas Eve is 13 weeks today, so make a few notes to get out the plastic mistletoe and check that those boxes of decorations in the loft weren't stored under a roof leak or have since become home to mice. The dreaded Christmas clock is ticking.

Drivers slow your speed or it could cost you Canadian visitors are causing a stir

COULD Weymouth's Westham area be on the brink of having a 20mph speed limit?

The measure is certainly something that Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner Martyn Underhill is aware of after it cropped up during his recent Community Day at the Community Fire Station on Radipole Lane.

Residents in Westham – including myself – are only too well aware that not all motorists in our area drive at a reasonable speed with some drivers coming down my road doing a good 50mph on occasion while motorcyclists roar through even faster.

But are we in Westham suffering any more than other areas of Weymouth and, if speeding is a much more widespread problem, are the authorities going to consider a blanket 20mph limit across town?

To be honest, I don't think they can. We have enough problems caused by our new "intelligent" traffic system without adding to them by introducing slow-moving traffic right across town, but something has to be done to tackle the problem.

That "something" may initially take the form of volunteers being trained to use speed guns with first time offenders getting a warning letter and repeat offenders dealt with on a rising scale of punishment.

There will be blood on their hands

PORTLAND Coastguard has finally fallen victim to a form of officialdom which has set new standards even for Government stupidity.

Westminster frequently has a short and very selective memory, so I want to remind everyone that one of the most telling remarks made in the campaign was that Ministers would have "blood on their hands" with the first fatality under the new regime which could have been prevented if Portland Coastguard was still there.

No-one wants anyone to die, but the weight of material presented by South Dorset MP Richard Drax to save the coastguard operation and its helicopter should have been more than enough to convince any reasonable person.

Unfortunately there is nothing "reasonable" about Government which seems to make its mind up first and only then go out to public consultation.

Many feel that any savings made by the coastguard switch are a false economy which is putting lives at risk apart from the fact that operation figures from Lee-on-Solent just don't add up.

It brings a whole new meaning to the hymn about "those in peril on the sea" when their plight might actually be made fatal by the Whitehall wide boys whose ill-informed advisors presumably think the Portland Race is an athletics event!

They can rest assured that thousands of people are monitoring the situation and if lives are lost because of their decision then they'll be brought to book.

ANYONE seeing a "V" sign directed at them tends to get pretty angry, but the latest examples are drawing nothing but delight from the people who see them.

It's autumn and whole flocks of Canada geese in their distinctive "V" flight formations can be seen winging their way in over Southill heading for a quick snack on Radipole Lake.

Residents could be seen coming out of their homes with binoculars to enjoy the spectacle which sometimes involved more than 70 birds.

Ten to 20 at a time were commonplace and it was sometimes possible to see flights of these birds stacked back into the distance, perhaps four or five flights being visible at the same time back along their chosen flightpath.

And they seem to pay attention to the flights in front of them because when a frontrunner suddenly swung right away from homes and over Southill roundabout then the geese in the flight immediately behind them did the same.

Down on the ground there were more than a dozen residents outside tracking the flights and pointing to them as they went overhead while, for those able to go down later to the Lake, scores of geese could be seen on the waters enjoying a break.

Last bus to the west is at 7.15pm!

WITH news that the evening bus service, the number 31, is being axed, the last bus from Dorchester to Bridport is 7.15pm.

The deregulation of bus services has been an unmitigated disaster in itself, but the withdrawal of bus subsidies by Dorset County Council has also been a body blow to rural services.

The No 31 service originally ran from Weymouth to Axminster and was linked to rail stations. This allowed a visit to London and bus connections to the west ie Bridport, Axminster and Lyme Regis. On my estimation you would now have to catch the 4.30pm from Waterloo to catch the last 7.15pm bus back to Bridport and the west.

Recently the service 31 was axed, Weymouth to Dorchester and a change from the No 10 at Dorchester was instigated. Then Martinstown was deleted from the route except one journey in each direction. This was apparently to make better connections to the railway station at Dorchester. Now evening services are being axed.

The First bus company obviously has a 'profit on all routes' policy. The word service has gone out the window and the public suffer again. When customers lose their jobs because of public service cuts, something is wrong. Time to look again at bus subsidies and perhaps renationalisation!

Barry Thompson, Dorchester and District Labour Party Chairman

Mayor pays tribute to Coastguard

ON behalf of the people of Weymouth and Portland I would like to sincerely thank and pay tribute to the staff and volunteers of the HM Coastguard who have served the community so well from the maritime rescue co-ordination centre on Weymouth harbourside for many years.

We are indeed indebted to their courage, commitment and professionalism which have no doubt saved many lives - both visitors and locals alike - in years gone by.

The borough council has enjoyed an excellent close working relationship with these teams alongside other authorities and agencies, such as during the storms and flooding events last winter.

I would again like to thank those individuals - past and present - for their efforts and wish them all the best for the future, wherever that may be.

Why not absorb WDDC into DCC?

WHAT could the 85 per cent Scottish turnout suggest for West Dorset locally, given possibly lesser knowledge of local issues/procedures here, and only 55 per cent voting in local elections?

In 2011 the ruling party here achieved only 45 per cent of votes cast, yet 67 per cent of seats. Their leader simply hand-picks six colleagues for the executive cabinet-committee and their political party invariably passes their plans in council.

Despite Lehman's 2008 melt-down, this cabinet continued with a massive Dorchester shopping development plan, despite warnings, unanimous Dorchester Town Council opposition, and a 93 per cent vote against new offices by Dorchester's public voting in 2010 - ignored by WDDC.... (offices subsequently rated at the equivalent of only two out of four for value-for-money by auditors KPMG).

On Dorchester's town-centre South and North Charles Street car-parks, a new shopping development with adjacent new car-parking was planned. Then disaster/incapacity. WDDC sequestered over one third of this scarce land, to build themselves new council offices. They then lost £2million on their promised sales-value of old offices. And offered up-to £2million more towards the development, and up-to £2million more to move the church etc.

Decidedly less-than-upfront information meant even councillors hadn't realised all the rest of Charles Street car-parking would have to close for the 37 months' construction period before replacement central parking arrived. Development subsequently stalled, stunted/haunted by massively reduced space.

A 2013 Public Question on offices was disqualified before being put, supplementary questions banned, executive councillors won't debate interactively publicly. Even WDDC's news-sheet to all residents - Community Link - has seemingly now dried-up. What a contrast with the openness of the Scottish Referendum.

Now we hear WDDC wants a coming-together with North Dorset. But were the 'owners' of WDDC (us!) ever asked if we wanted the middle tier of local government extended? Why not instead absorb WDDC into DCC to achieve really efficient, integral local gov't? WDDC should certainly wait for changes from national government to local government following the Scottish referendum. Surely all Democrats (hopefully everyone) can agree the question could then be put to all West Dorset residents "should West Dorset be absorbed into DCC?"

A book that finally tells the Dorsets' story

VETERANS from the Dorset Regiment will meet in Dorchester this weekend to complete the history of the regiment.

The Saturday, September 27th meeting at the TA Centre will mark the launch of the completion of the Regiment's history.

Until now the published histories, which begin in 1702, have

By Trevor Bevins
trevorbevins@gmail.com

stopped abruptly in 1939, but a new book has been written to complete the story.

"They Couldn't Have Done Better" tells the story of the four Dorset battalions who fought in the Second World War and of the Regiment's post-war service in the years of Britain's withdrawal from empire, the Cold War and National Service.

This year marks three 70th anniversaries for the Regiment. In May 1944 the 2nd Dorsets won a bloody battle at Kohima, which proved the turning-point in the war in Burma; in June 1944 the 1st Dorsets were one of the first assault troops to land on the Normandy beaches and, despite their losses, captured all their objectives on D-Day; and in late September 1944, the 4th and 5th Dorsets fought near Arnhem and enabled some of the Airborne troops trapped north of the Neder Rijn to escape across the river. The 4th Dorsets, who sacrificed themselves to save their Airborne comrades, were the only non-Airborne unit to be awarded the Arnhem battle honour.

The book launch this weekend falls on the anniversary of the tragic end of the Arnhem battle and it will be attended by four Dorset Regiment veterans of the Second World War:

100-year-old Bill Chutter, fought in Malta, Sicily and Italy with the 1st Dorsets before landing with them in France on D-Day. In May 2014 he celebrated his own centenary.

Ron Beale and Harry Carter served in the 4th Battalion, which (beside the 5th) fought its way from the Normandy beach-head in June 1944 to Bremerhaven the following May.

The fourth is Cliff Lloyd of the 4th Dorsets. Wounded in Normandy in July 1944, he returned in September

VETERAN Bill Chutter (100). He will be among guests at a party to celebrate a new book about the Dorset Regiment this weekend to take part in the Arnhem operation. Crossing the river to help the Airborne troops fight their way out, he was captured and spent the rest of the war as a prisoner of the Germans.

Mr Lloyd has written a foreword for the Regiment's new book. So has Major-General Colin Shortis, the senior surviving Dorset.

The book's author is Christopher Jary said: "Most of the veterans attending the party are now in their late seventies and eighties and this is likely to be the last formal event for the Dorset Regiment.

After the war they served in the Regiment in Germany, Austria, Italy, Japan, Malaya, Hong Kong and Korea. They will all have much to remember when they meet to launch the Dorsets' new book. A book which finally tells their story."

Still time to claim flood support

HOUSEHOLDERS and businesses in West Dorset, Weymouth and Portland can still claim financial help from council-run flood support schemes.

The schemes were introduced with Government backing to help businesses and homeowners affected by flooding during the severe weather events last winter.

The various support schemes can help with clean-up costs, business rate or council tax relief as well as grants for measures to help resilience and resistance of properties and premises to future flood risk.

Eligibility criteria apply for the various schemes, such as flooding must have been internal and happened between December 1st 2013 and March 31st 2014.

The schemes have already been publicised, including at flood drop-in sessions, but the council is keen to make sure that everyone who may be able to claim does so.

Leader of West Dorset District Council Robert Gould said: "I would like to remind people that these flood support schemes are still open to applications.

"If your house or business was flooded last winter it's worth finding out if you are eligible to get help under one or other of the schemes."

Weymouth & Portland Brief holder for Environment and Sustainability Ian Roebuck said: "The severe weather caused a lot of damage last winter.

"With our partners, the borough council continues to be busy making sure sea defences are repaired, fit and ready for this winter.

"I want to make sure that those who experienced flooding inside their homes last winter takes advantage of the schemes to help make their properties more resilient to future flood events."

More information about the support schemes and general advice about protecting your home from flooding can be found at www.dorsetforyou.com/flooding.

Tax Help for Older People

TAX Help for Older People is a locally run, national charity based in Salway Ash on Pineapple Business Park. We are proud to be celebrating 10 years of providing a caring and friendly help and advice service on personal tax issues. You will find that the service is jargon free, independent, confidential and individual to your needs. To be eligible you just need to be 60+ with an annual income of less than £20,000 p.a.

We deal with a huge range of personal tax problems. The more frequent problems our team encounter include PAYE coding issues, completing self-assessments and other forms, how to deal with an underpayment and guidance through retirement or bereavement. We can help you check that your tax is right, talk with HMRC and where necessary appeal or complain. We also provide tax awareness training to pensioner groups and other generalist advice services.

Our team of well-trained staff provide telephone advice from our Dorset base, but about one in five of those who approach us need to talk to someone face-to-face. It is here that our network of volunteer tax advisers comes into play. Where possible these face-to-face advice sessions take place during a tax "surgery" in a local CAB branch, Age UK (NI) or Age Concern. But if a client is disabled, mobility impaired or has transport difficulties then we arrange for the interview to take place in their own home.

We draw our volunteers from within the accounting and tax professions and from retired tax inspectors.

Clarondene

THERE has been so much wonderful activity in Lyme Regis and around this summer. Much of it, as usual, was inaccessible or unsuitably crowded for the fragile elderly, so we are very grateful for the terrific coverage in the 'View From' papers which get read over and over again. Why struggle over the sand in the wheelchair when you can enjoy all those pictures and relive the moment at Guitars on the Beach? The 3 Magazine Supplements of the summer have been terrific bonuses for us, and several of our residents have sight problems, so have loved being read to from it and seeing those big pictures. Imagine the article on Haunted Lyme, read like an Alfred Hitchcock late in the evening with the lights turned down! The 'audience' loved it!

Thanks, Carnival Organisers for letting us sneak into Holmbush so that Vi and Milly could see the Carnival take off with dressed-up grandchildren, Majorettes and so many Lyme folk who recognised and assisted them. A late night they are both still talking about.

Two other things we have thoroughly enjoyed this summer:

Rousden's World War 1 exhibition was truly of amazing quality. Margaret – who is nearly 98 so almost experienced it personally – and Cyril were able to reminisce and remember from so many items ranging from old cigarette packets & matchboxes to posters exhorting the populous to greater sacrifice and effort. Bim just loved the music and being amongst the crowd, especially when one elegant gentleman asked her for a dance! The entrance hall was a multisensory encounter of being in a battlefield bunker, with the objects, sounds, light effects and protective sacks of sand. Many thanks to the community for such a memorable event we will re-live in the winter months and beyond.

Now, the East Cliff walk! Well, apart from nowhere to park the accessible bus as always, it is the most wonderful development for the elderly of Lyme since I have moved here. At last we can push our wheelchairs along the sea-side without fear of hindrance or hazard and have that panoramic view over Lyme Bay at all hours and seasons. Well Done! to whoever planned a path the elderly in the community can enjoy, even if the accessibility is a bonus rather than a fore-thought! And as for the visitors who told me they thought it dangerous without lights – try Blackpool and leave our wonderful unspoilt vistas to us – we appreciate them!

Your guide to local live music

Top tribute to rock legends

WALL OF FLOYD IN WEYMOUTH

THE Wall of Floyd will be playing Weymouth Pavilion on Friday, October 3rd at 7.30pm.

The nine piece Hampshire-based Pink Floyd tribute band formed five years ago out of their love of music and passion for Pink Floyd in particular.

The band members have diverse backgrounds and ages, but they all have the dedication needed to reproduce the music they love so accurately. They performed regularly at small local music venues to great acclaim and as word quickly spread, to packed houses every time. In early 2014 this prompted their decision to take their show on the road to a wider audience, and larger venues, and so the Division Bell UK tour was born.

Their commitment, skill and experience have enabled them to put together a two and a half hour show that displays the very best of Pink Floyd. From the early years of Syd Barrett that started Floyd on their amazing journey through albums such as Dark Side of the Moon and Wish You Were Here, and including the recently re-released Division Bell, all the iconic hits are here plus a few less well known numbers that when included in one show create a deeper and more varied example of the wonderful sound of Pink Floyd.

Their performance includes 'Wearing the Inside Out', 'Shine on You Crazy Diamond', 'Brick in The Wall', 'Money', 'Brain Damage' and a spine tingling vocal solo by Ashley Austin in 'The Great Gig in the Sky'. A couple of great songs from the Final Cut album are also included that are rarely played by other tribute bands.

Pink Floyd music appeals to all ages and attracts many thousands of new fans every year adding to its existing millions worldwide.

Amazing music and vocals, combined with a stunning light show, make this an evening to remember and an opportunity to experience a truly great part of British rock music.

Tickets are available now from the Weymouth Pavilion Box Office (www.weymouthpavilion.com or 01305 783225).

Get ready to skank at the REGGAE PARTY

FOLLOWING on from the highly acclaimed and hugely successful five Reggae Party Nights, Lyme's favourite DJ MadJeff and his fellow DJs present a final end of summer gig. Held this time in the ever popular Power Boat Club on Lyme's Monmouth Beach the party, music and laser light show starts at 8.00pm this coming Saturday, September 27th.

As with last year this is an event for charity with all net proceeds from the entrance fee being donated to the charity and with the DJs offering their services for free. The beneficiary is Southern Grenadines Animal Kindness (SGAK) in St Vincent, West Indies (www.animalkindness.net). With a small sanctuary and free veterinary treatment, SGAK is dedicated to securing a brighter future for all the island animals; a truly worthy cause.

Tickets are priced at £7.50 and include a free special rum punch and can be purchased from the Beach House Café, near the Cobb in Lyme, the Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre, Church St or by calling Jeff on 07500 897930. Tickets can also be bought on the night at the door, however please note that only 150 are available and that you should come early the avoid disappointment.

Najma Akhtar: The vocal wonder of world music comes to Dorchester

A Tour of Song and Poetry expressed through the Indian Ghazal and Western Folk

PREPARE to be mesmerised this September at Dorchester Arts with an intimate evening of song and poetry from Najma Akhtar, the renowned British singer and songwriter from Indian and Pakistani heritage. Having collaborated with many world-class artists, including Jimmy Page and Robert Plant, Basement Jaxx, and Philip Glass, Najma will present her vocal prowess through the romantic Urdu poetry of the Ghazal in song, exploring lyrics written by traditional and contemporary Sufi writers.

Additionally, in reflection of Najma's British nationality and heritage, the concert will incorporate a number of English and Irish traditional ballads and songs.

Having dominated the world music scene for the past two decades Najma brings with her a wealth of experience that still sounds as fresh and vibrant as when she first exploded onto the music scene.

Najma established herself as a pioneering vocalist during the late eighties with her widely acclaimed first album 'Qareeb', introducing jazz to the traditional repertoire of Ghazal (Urdu ballad). This album was hailed as a groundbreaking recording in the World Music scene and has since paved the way for many artists of Indian descent.

Using both the traditional & contemporary Indian style, Najma will be accompanied by harmonium, violin, bass, percussion and guitar. However, the emphasis of this unique concert is the voice, celebrating the Ghazal, the Ballad and stories of love. Having been described as "a heaven-sent gift" (Songlines), "immaculate" (The Guardian) and "enchanting and splendid" (All Music Guide) Najma's voice explores British and Indian roots, connecting vocal expressions through the rich musical landscape of the cultures that surround them.

Najma Akhtar

Najma's 2014 autumn tour is, incorporating dates throughout the South West, supported by Routes South West and Arts Council England and is aimed at a wider audience as it explores a bi-lingual territory that is highly unusual in the presentation of an Asian and European repertoire.

Najma Akhtar performs on Saturday, September 27th at Dorchester Arts Centre at 8pm - tickets are £10/£8 members and concessions. For more details and to book visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk or call 01305 266926.

The Queen's Knickers

A hilarious, witty and silly comedy for children

GET your knickers in a twist with a hilarious, witty and silly comedy for wise young children. The Queen's Knickers, based on the much-loved book by Nicholas Allen, will be staged at Bridport Arts Centre on Sunday, September 28th at 2pm.

Dilys, the Queen's maid, is the royal custodian of her Majesty's 'intimate apparel', otherwise known as the Queen's knickers. She guards HRH's smalls as if they were the crown jewels. She would be mortified if anyone got a glimpse of them.

But one day the knickers go missing, causing a national state of emergency and a diplomatic incident of catastrophic proportions.

A celebration of the garments we all wear, but never show, this children's classic is inventively told by two elastic actors.

It's all about knickers, but it won't be pants!

Tickets are £12, £11 Members, £10 Concessions, £7 Child, or £34 Family available online at www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204.

The Queen's Knickers

Accordion-led band 'Streetworks' at Bridport Jazz Cafe

ACCORDIONIST Karen Street's latest project 'Streetworks' will be playing at the Jazz Café in Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, October 3rd. The band features the amazingly creative talent of guitarist Mike Outram, Will Harris who is fast becoming the South West's most in-demand bassist and honey-toned saxophonist Andy Tweed. The music is melodic, influenced not only by jazz but with strong leanings to both Central European and South American styles, especially the tango.

The accordion is a truly amazing instrument with many colours and much to offer the jazz world. Karen continues to be in the vanguard of those accordionists giving the accordion a fresh voice in jazz.

Karen Street has produced three CDs under her own name all receiving very enthusiastic reviews. She has played alongside renowned UK musicians Mike Westbrook, Martin Taylor, Stan Sulzman and Tina May; other credits include Grace Jones, Martha Wainwright, Ute Lemper and Sir Willard White.

Mike Outram is one of the UK's foremost guitarists who is sought after as an impro-viser and for his ability to contribute a unique voice to any musical ensemble. He has toured internationally and appeared on over a hundred CDs for Universal, Sony, Candid, Blue Note records and others. He has been praised as 'world-class' by The Guardian.

Andy Tweed is one of the most accomplished saxophonists inhabiting that ground between contemporary classical and jazz making him the perfect choice for this project. A former member of highly successful saxophone quartet, Saxtet, who toured extensively throughout the world, he now plays with the Venn saxophone quartet based in Bristol and the Flotilla ensemble in London.

Will Harris has established himself as one of the most in-demand double bassists in the South West, having played with the likes of Bobby Wellins, Alan Barnes, Tina May and Anita Wardell.

Streetworks will perform at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, October 3rd at 8pm, tickets are £10, available by calling 01308 424204 or visit www.bridport-arts.com

Multi Story Theatre Company in Almost Heaven

IT'S over 13 years since Gill Nathanson from Multi Story Theatre Company met Niki McCretton on the Canadian fringe festival circuit. "We were in Winnipeg", remembers Gill, "I remember so clearly going to see Niki's one and being blown away by it - I can't believe it's 13 years ago". So it seems fitting that Gill will be performing at Bridport's Lyric Theatre, where Niki is Director, to perform with Multi Story Theatre Company in Almost Heaven, a play all about the ticking clock of time and the stories that stretch across the years to unite and, sometimes, divide us.

The play is set in a sunny garden, enveloped by birdsong, where a man and a woman swap stories. They share a past - something unspoken, unresolved, unrequited. They begin at the beginning, with flood myths from around the world but he has a specific story he needs to tell: Nimrod and the Tower of Babel. Time is running out for this man and between them they must construct their story before the day is done.

These two characters gently lead you on a journey that takes in ancient history, neuroscience and the power of language. But all journeys come to an end and when this one does it might just break your heart.

It's not the first journey to Bridport for Gill and her Multi Story associate Bill Buffery. They have both performed at Bridport Arts Centre with Orchard Theatre Company and, more recently, with their own company, Multi Story. In the year 2000 they set up multi story, to tell big stories in small spaces, stories that have taken the company all over the UK and also to places as far flung as South America, Canada and the Czech Republic. "We really do believe that the best stories are universal," explains Bill. Last year the company squeezed their hi-tech performance of their last production Every Mother's Son into the cafe area at Bridport Arts Centre. "We had such a great time", Buffery continues, "the Bridport audience was so warm and welcoming that we jumped at the chance to bring Almost Heaven to the Lyric".

"We've had such a fantastic reception to Almost Heaven wherever we've played it", says Gill. "It's a play that seems to engage people of all ages and particularly with those who are ready to take a look back at the journey they've made so far."

And, judging from the reviews Almost Heaven has already garnered, the Lyric audience is in for a treat. Suitable for over 16s, and there will be an optional post show discussion.

Multi Story Theatre Company in Almost Heaven perform at Bridport's Lyric Theatre on Saturday, September 27th at 8pm.

Tickets are £10 from Bridport Arts Centre: 01308 424204 / www.bridport-arts.com or on the door at the Lyric from 7:30pm the night of the show.

Stewards required at Allsop Gallery

DO you have an interest in the visual arts and a couple of hours a week to spare? Bridport Arts Centre's Exhibitions Assistant, Megan Dunford, is inviting people to contact her about volunteer stewarding roles.

The Allsop Gallery hosts a wide variety of art. Regular stewards have seen everything from knitted gardens to sculpture to large-scale paintings and everything in-between. It is especially interesting for people with an interest in visual arts as there are always like-minded artists or visitors to talk to.

Megan said "It is such a enjoyable role. When you go to the gallery you never know what will happen, you don't know who will walk through the door. If you're interested in art you will always have someone to chat to about the subject".

The Allsop Gallery is the only publically funded gallery in Dorset and our volunteers play an essential role in allowing it to stay open. This makes it possible for thousands of visitors to experience quality art for free.

The volunteer slots are two hours per session and the role involves tracking visitor numbers, greeting visitors with a warm welcome and keeping an eye on the artwork.

If you are interested in the role please contact gallery.stewards@bridport-arts.com or phone Megan on a Tuesday or Friday between 10am - 4pm on 01308 42424.

Square & Compass

A very relaxed, elegant wedding with very, very good food

THERE has been an inn at Windmill Hill for around 200 years and it is part of the fabric of the area. The Square and Compass is now a well-known hotel, renowned for excellent food. Owners, Chris and Janet Slow have been resident for 17+ years and in this time they have built up a reputation for very good food and drink. Run in a relaxed, informal manner, you can enjoy a drink, some food, or celebrate a special occasion in the Barn, a separate venue behind the Square and Compass.

The Barn

Set in its own spacious gardens, the Barn is completely separated from the Inn and Stables Hotel rooms and is a very popular venue for weddings. Full of rustic charm with heavy wooden tables, chairs and careful lighting, it is decorated with a rural theme and can hold up to 250 people.

The informal atmosphere that gives the Square and Compass its special charm extends to the Barn, allowing you to relax during your special occasion knowing that every detail has been planned exactly to your needs beforehand so the whole day runs seamlessly. We are absolutely committed to making your day as perfect as we possibly can.

The Barn's rustic appearance belies modern facilities. There is a dance area and stage with a powerful sound system and lighting set up. There is also a fully licensed bar, modern toilets and disabled access in all areas. The Barn has a civil license for weddings, with the large gardens surrounded by fields making a truly beautiful setting. We built the Barn using old-fashioned materials, specifically for weddings. We think it is the perfect venue for your special day.

The Barn is a little more than 5 minutes from Junction 25 of the M5 at Taunton and likewise from the A303 at Ilminster. Although set in pleasant rural surroundings, it is easily accessible with full facilities available for business meetings, exhibitions and corporate events.

The speciality of our weddings is that the whole day revolves around an exceptionally good quality, generous meal in the afternoon, prepared and cooked by a team of highly professional chefs led by Janet, one of the owners. 'We find that if the food is really good everything else slots into place' says Chris. In 2005 we demolished the old pub kitchens and invested £100,000 in a state of the art catering kitchen.

The Shrubbery Hotel

THE Shrubbery Hotel, Ilminster established from 1932 as the community hotel for Ilminster and South Somerset. Professional management and experienced staff will help to make your perfect day. The hotel stands in its own grounds with car parking for 60 plus cars, and offers a wide selection of menus and prices to suit all pockets. Reception from 30 to 200, evening parties for 350.

With a full civil licence, why not have all your wedding in one establishment.

21 3 * bedrooms all en suite.

Easy access from the M5 or A303, the location of the hotel is at once relaxing and vital.

The hotel is being completely refurbished, and is offering special rates from early spring 2015.

Lydia says, "I truly have loved making great use of my education which includes an honours Degree in Photography from Plymouth University as well as having gained a qualifying examination from the British Institute of Professional Photographers. West of England Laser Centre

Moles, sunspots and other blemishes

THE West of England Laser Centre situated at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital, can treat these plus other skin conditions by laser.

Sun spots and freckles – sometimes known as 'liver' or 'age' spots – exist where the body collects more pigment, called melanin. For removal of moles, short bursts of high laser light are applied, thus removing precise layers of superficial skin layer by layer until the lesion is significantly diminished/no longer visible. The precision of modern-day lasers minimises risks of scarring – unlike the older version lasers of the past.

Also available is laser removal of: facial thread veins, warts, veruccas, "blood spots", excess hair and tattoos. In addition various injection treatments are used to smooth away fine facial lines and/or to add volume and definition, eg. to the lips. Baggy eyelid problems can also be solved at the centre by a minor surgical procedure.

Our website at www.welc.co.uk provides details on all our treatments. For further information or to book a consultation please telephone 01823 331773 or e-mail us at lasercentre@lineone.net.

Styles and trends: lace wedding dresses

LACE is an eternally beautiful material for wedding dresses, and it's a style that has lasted for centuries in the fashion world. It's a favourite amongst designers worldwide, its reputation huge. And it's not hard to see why!

Wedding Dress Fashion Trends

Lace seems to be everywhere, and the biggest designers are using it all over the world. They have been for years! Its regard may in part be due to the fine craftsmanship that is handmade lace, but the popularity of the white lace wedding dress is often attributed to Queen Victoria's marriage to Prince Albert in her lace-trimmed gown, train, and veil. Celebrities really help to push the reputation of this fine material—just look at Grace Kelly, whose wedding dress is famed in the fashion world. Now lace is everywhere, from bridalwear to wedding decoration.

Lace features in many of the trends for next year, most prominently with the likes of nude lace. The design acts as a bit of an optical illusion that may, for some, seem a little bit racy. But it gives some absolutely beautiful effects, and a look like that of old vintage.

Being a very traditional, flattering material, lace is wonderful for a vintage or art deco wedding. It really adds a pretty elegance to the wearer, and with the ornate designs available right across the material, you can get any number of beautiful finishes to the dress. Open backs seem to be a big trend for next year, and lace can really set off that effect. Also bohemian gowns and tea length dresses really run with lace, giving some of the most stunning designs.

Choosing the Right Material

If you're worried a full-lace wedding dress isn't for you however, don't fret! You can still get that spark of vintage with lace sleeves, shoes, a cloak, jacket or bolero, or a belt, veil or a hairpiece. Perhaps even a handkerchief or a pair of gloves? Lace is a very flexible material to work with; with it, you can get any number of styles: chic or floaty, grand or unadorned. You may even consider some appliqué work, where bits of lace are stitched by hand to parts of the dress in order to accent it. Don't be afraid to try out different colours either—ivory lace on a white dress, or white on pale pink or blue-silver? Brides are no longer going after the classic white wedding. Feel free to shake it up!

Choose your lace carefully, as it can come in many forms and give any number of stunning effects—some is denser and heavier with deep patterns, some is lighter and softer, its design delicate. And then there is even lace decorated with beads and sequins, crystals, gems and pearls, and these really echo the fashion of the Roaring Twenties or the Victorian era. Research thoroughly by perhaps keeping a scrapbook of the materials you like, and the dress designs you love, and be careful when it comes to buying your dress/accessories. There are many cheap knock-offs in the world so it's advised that you seek professional advice on what to look for when buying your items. Of course, not all of the cheaper lace is a bad thing, for when it's done right it can really suit a bride on a budget and still look magnificent.

Fiona Neylan Millinery

MILLINERY has been in my family since 1917, originating with my Grandmother, Gladys Falloon, and my Mother, Elaine Reid and my Aunt, Sheila Ferris. My Grandmother sailed from Ireland in 1917 to Liverpool, age 17, to train as a Milliner.

I am the third generation of Milliners in my family, and whilst growing up, in Oxfordshire, I learned a lot about hats and headwear from these family members. My Grandmother, had a shop in High Wycombe in the 1930's and '40's, and then a shop in Henley-on-Thames, which my Mother and Aunt mainly ran. Being by the River Thames, ladies would come and buy hats for Henley Royal Regatta, and for Ascot, nearby and also for weddings and other occasion wear. Over the years I learned a lot of useful tips about hats. We often went to the Henley Regatta and it was a great day out of course, and My mother would often help me find a hat from the shop and then we'd add something to it or adapt it in some way to personalise it.

After A' levels and a gap year, I went to Cheltenham Art College, and did a Foundation course and a Degree in Sculpture, Fine Art, followed by a Steiner Education course. I hadn't thought about going into Millinery yet. It wasn't until some years later, after I'd had children that my interest in hats was re-kindled. After finding a box of beautiful vintage fur felt hat hoods (hat material before it is shaped) from the Henley shop, after Mum had retired, I decided to find a short course on Traditional fur felt hat blocking techniques. I found the perfect course for me ran by Tina Guintini from London, who was tutoring in Frome, Somerset at the time. I learned traditional steaming and blocking techniques and how to shape and make a hat from start to finish.

I now have a Hat Studio in the Vintage Quarter in St Michael's Trading Estate, (Studio 12), where I design and make hats in felt, fur felt, wool, cashmere, straw and sinamay and some bridal and Occasion headwear. Each hat is individually styled and decorated.

I also up-cycle some hats to revive them if they are a little tired. I have some specially selected hats and accessories of quality. Design to add to my collection. The accessories tend to be shawls and scarves, and some Fair-trade Baskets and Parasols, to protect your hat from the weather, rain or shine!!

And to complement your look, I also have Botanical, Natural and Organic skincare and make-up that is all Pure, Safe and Beneficial, and Nutritionals to enhance health and beauty from within.

Come and see me in my Hat Studio at Unit 10, Studio 12, St Michael's Trading Estate, Bridport, DT6 3RR- Wed, Fri and Sat until 4 pm mostly or call on 07905999437 or e-mail: hats@fionaneylan.co.uk to make an appointment.

Wedding nails are the perfect complement to your bridal look...You've got the ring, the veil and the bouquet, now all you need are picture-perfect hands

The nail shape

MAKE sure that your nails are groomed from the minute you get engaged. Once you are engaged, you want to be careful not to compete with your engagement ring in any pictures, so it's best to keep the nails short and round.

The nail shades

Soft pinks and nude beige shades look chic and subtle. Try finding a shade that is closest to your skin tone ensures the polish won't compete with your beautiful engagement and wedding rings in pictures.

The longevity

You can get the most of your manicure when you apply very thin coats, letting the polish dry in between each layer so the solvents evaporate, it will wear better and last longer. Waiting at least a minute or two between each coat is recommended.

TOP CLASS THEATRE COMES TO DORCHESTER THIS AUTUMN

In celebration of its 30th birthday, Dorchester Arts launches its autumn season of top class theatre this weekend

THIS spectacular season of drama supported by Batten Solicitors, starts this Friday, September 26th with John Steinbeck's novella The Pearl, aptly timed to coincide with the launch of Dorchester Arts 30th anniversary. Expect superb visual inventiveness and playful theatricality from the highly acclaimed Dumbshow Theatre as they explore the allure of wealth, the confines of class, and the redemptive power of love in this timeless fable.

There are also some special treats for the whole family to enjoy. Hilarious comedy comes to Dorchester Corn Exchange on Saturday, September 27th with the much-celebrated children's show The Queen's Knickers, presented by the Southbank Centre and the egg theatre, Bath. This spectacular sell-out show was a huge hit in London and is now making its way to Dorset's county town for more frilly fun and frolics.

October continues with a feast of top class theatre starting with the ingenious Lyme Regis based Shanty Theatre Company who will be performing their impressive adaptation of The Story Giant, from the legendary Liverpool author and poet Brian Patten on Wednesday, October 1st at the Corn Exchange. Join the gang at the as they dash through story explosion after turbulent tale in this adventure to find the last story on earth.

A gripping new play presented by award-winning theatre company AsOne, also comes to Dorchester's Corn Exchange on Wednesday, October 8th. In commemoration of the WW1 centenary year this new production follows five stories of soldiers and families 100 years apart, rich with fascinating true accounts retold through experienced creative talent. Interweaving newly gathered original testimony theatrically delivered along with live music Passion is poignant, funny and bravely honest, revealing how the ravages of war ripple down the generations.

Later in the month the hugely witty Living Spit Theatre Company return with another comedy play loosely based on historical fact with Elizabeth I - Virgin on the Ridiculous on Friday 24th October at Dorchester Arts Centre. The year is 1558. England. A country divided by religion and politics, teetering on the brink of civil war. The hopes of the nation lie with one woman.

Fast-forward a few hundred years to 2014.

Elizabeth 1st: Virgin on the Ridiculous

England. A country divided by those who enjoy plays featuring men in dresses and those who don't. The hopes of the nation lie with two Bristolian actors. Packed full of live original music, silly songs, smutty shenanigans, perfunctory props, and hysterically historical horseplay, this play promises to provide a poorly researched lesson in Tudor history that you'll never forget. This production is also showing at Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis.

Acclaimed theatre company Forest Forge

Forest Forge's Woman of Flowers embark on a UK tour this autumn with the world premiere of a brand new play – Kaite O'Reilly's Woman of Flowers, an innovative retelling of an ancient Welsh story from The Mabinogion, and will be performed at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Saturday, October 25th. Rose cannot remember what came before the house at the edge of the isolated forest. Gwynne says he conjured her out of the flowers, but she's not so sure. She has played the part of the perfect farmer's wife for Lewis, who is kept firmly in place by his uncle Gwynne, and accepted her lonely existence. Then a stranger is seen in the forest. To what lengths will she go to escape the life chosen for her? This is an accessible performance with theatricalised sign and subtitles throughout and features live music, dance, and video. As part of the UK tour this can also be seen at Bridport Arts Centre.

To view the full line-up you can pick up the autumn brochure at various outlets in and around Dorchester, or visit Dorchester Arts website. To book visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk or call Box Office 01305 266926 or at Dorchester TIC.

Local young Soprano, Chloe Stratta, to sing with English Opera Ensemble

FROM Charmouth Primary School to a promising future in Opera - 22 Year old Chloe Stratta will sing the role of the shepherd who heralds the coming of the fatal dawn in Act 3, with the English Opera Ensemble in the forthcoming production of TOSCA, which is being produced by STAG (Shute Theatre and Arts Guild) in Kilmington Church next month. The young soprano will be singing and supporting a dazzling cast of professional singers including Anna Gregory, Dominic Barrand and Michael Bracegirdle, opera stars who's past performances have graced the stages of the Royal Opera House and the Royal Festival Hall.

Chloe graduated from the University of Manchester in July 2013 with a first class bachelor of music degree. She currently studies as a soprano under Ryland Davies and Deborah Rees. During her time in Manchester, Chloe was involved in many concerts as member of the University Chorus, and the University's prestigious chamber choir, with whom she toured to Milan. In July 2014, Chloe sung in the Dorset Opera Chorus for their 40th anniversary productions of Verdi's Aida and Beethoven's Fidelio. Her solo concert work includes Fauré's Requiem, in Exeter Cathedral, Haydn's Creation Mass with Lyme Bay Chorale, and Haydn's Mass in the Time of War, with Sidmouth Choral society, as well as recital work. She looks forward to returning to sing for these groups this Autumn. Chloe grew up in Lyme Regis, and attended Colyton Grammar School, singing in the school choir and chamber choir, directed by David House. She received singing lessons from Brian Manners.

Shute Theatre and Arts Guild is proud to present - For One Night Only

Volvo Cars Reveals The All-New Volvo XC90 R-Design

▲ The all-new Volvo XC90 R-Design

VOLVO Cars has released the first images of the R-Design version of the all new XC90, aimed at buyers looking for a head-turner that radiates a truly sporty and dynamic look.

"R-Design is created for people with a passion for things that add spice to life," said Alain Visser, Senior Vice President, Marketing, Sales and Customer Service of Volvo Car Group. "It appeals to customers that love active driving and a personal, expressive design. Every single R-Design detail is designed to contribute to the individualistic and refined expression these customers desire."

The visual promise of a dynamic ride is confirmed by the driver-centric interior featuring R-Design Contour sports seats in Nubuck and perforated leather. A choice of Drive-E powertrains offering up to 400 hp and the completely new XC90 chassis ensure an agile driving experience.

The release of the R-Design follows Volvo's release of 1,927 individually numbered black First Edition XC90's which were offered for sale exclusively online and sold out in 47 hours.

Distinctive R-Design detailing

The R-Design exterior includes a number of distinguishing details, such as grille, front spoiler, silk metal window surround, integrated dual exhausts, integrated silver roof rails and silver matt mirror covers. 20-inch R-Design alloy wheels complete the stylish, dynamic look.

Inside, gearshift paddles, plus the Contour sports seats and perforated leather steering wheel and gearshift knob are accompanied by special R-Design details, such as sports seats, pedals, floor mats and illuminated tread plates. The driver also gets an exclusive R-Design leather key remote control.

Tablet-like touch screen

The tablet-like touch screen in the centre and a 12.3-inch fully graphical driver display are of course included in the R-Design. The driver display also features a unique R-Design theme. The heart of the all-new in-car control is virtually button free and represents an entirely new way for drivers to operate their car and access a range of Internet and cloud based products and services.

New trim level strategy

The core of the new XC90 range will be the Momentum model. Above this sits two separate branches – for a sports-inspired look and feel, the R-Design offers exclusive features and design detailing. Meanwhile, for an elegant look and an even more luxurious experience, customers can opt for the richly equipped Inscription model.

"In principle, we have replaced the previous top level with the Inscription and R-Design versions. Both of them feature an elevated content, carefully chosen to emphasise each of their distinctive individual personalities," said Alain Visser.

Peugeot Quartz Concept: An SUV for the Future

THE PEUGEOT QUARTZ Concept unveils a new vision for the Crossover segment at the 2014 Paris Motor Show. This next generation SUV blends dazzling design with innovative materials and a powerful Hybrid drivetrain to create the ultimate premium family car experience.

"With the EXALT and QUARTZ Concepts, the Brand is showcasing its vision of the high-end automotive market. PEUGEOT is committed to developing exclusive concepts for its customers through outstanding design, innovative materials and unparalleled sensations."

Maxime Picat, PEUGEOT Brand Chief Executive Officer

An ultra-athletic crossover

The strong, powerful and sporty style of the PEUGEOT QUARTZ combines the body of an SUV with the cabin of a saloon. Sleek lines convey a dynamic feel that's further accentuated by short overhangs and the dramatic 23-inch wheels sitting inside generously rounded wheel arches. At 4.5m long and 2.06m wide, the QUARTZ has an athletic stance on the road that's further emphasised by its long bonnet and louvers that help improve airflow to the engine.

The lighting system features LED units for improved efficiency. As with all new PEUGEOTs, the lion badge stands in the centre of the grille. But on the QUARTZ it's brought to life by a chequered pattern that shifts depending on the angle you view it from. A glass roof flows towards the rear wings and incorporates two spoilers to further enhance its aerodynamic design. These are aligned with the Coupe Franche separator between the two QUARTZ finishes: mineral grey at the front, inspired by rock crystal, and matt black for the rear wings, offset by occasional splashes of red.

Wheel spokes have been kept to a minimum thanks to the strength of the materials and they're covered with composite flaps. These optimise aerodynamic flow and help cool the brakes to ensure improved heat resistance.

"The PEUGEOT QUARTZ Concept is the marriage in a single form that embraces the lower aspects of an SUV with the upper features of a saloon. The styling reflects the function of each part. The QUARTZ's sculpted body and innovative materials pack a punch while ensuring dynamic efficiency."

Matthias Hossann, PEUGEOT QUARTZ Design Manager

The cabin showcases innovative, efficient materials

The QUARTZ is based on the same EMP2 platform that underpins the new 308. The composite structure and bonded panels save weight but bring exceptional stiffness. This enabled PEUGEOT's engineers to remove the central B pillar and create scissor doors. A retractable step further eases access.

Basalt features strongly in the centre console. This strong but light material is formed when magma is quickly cooled once it comes in contact with the elements. It has the same properties the world over, making sourcing much easier.

The QUARTZ Concept is the first-ever vehicle to employ digitally woven textile. This innovative process can create large and complex components that can be used as soon as they come off the machine. No cutting is required meaning no waste. The textile is woven with polyester fibre from recycled plastic water bottles.

To create a sportier feel, the floor pan, sides and roof are trimmed in black leather, with contact points such as seat cushions and backs in tawny leather. To complete the look, the door frames are milled from a block of composite material. A red hue is used to fill the grooves left by the machine.

"The QUARTZ Concept has a contrasting interior and exterior. The cabin is designed to convey an enticing sense through its sophistication and refinement. Yet the overall feel is undeniably sporty, with an i-Cockpit dedicated to the driver's every need."

Sébastien Floutier, PEUGEOT QUARTZ Colour and Trim Designer

Indoor cricket season begins on Saturday

THE new West Dorset Youth Indoor Cricket League begins this Saturday (September 27th) with three matches in the under 12s league.

The first game is scheduled to start at 9.30am with a local derby as Portland take on Weymouth A.

All matches are played at the Osprey Leisure Centre who are kindly sponsoring the event for another season.

Nigel Williams Osprey Leisure Centre Manager is once again looking forward to show casing the best in local junior cricket talent: "After the success of the league last year and the encouraging comments received from parents and children alike, it is a pleasure to host the weekly sessions as it gives the children a chance to improve their skills and techniques during the off season."

League co-ordinator and West Dorset Coach Grant Neven added: "The league is going from strength to strength, and with the youngsters being able to play, practice and improve their skills this has greatly impacted on the standard of cricket in the area.

"This can only be good for local clubs with many of the youngsters continuing with their cricket and successfully making the transition to adult level."

Global success for Wey Valley

THE Wey Valley School is celebrating the sporting success of six of its students who, with support from the school's Sports Scholarship Grant, are forging ahead at local, regional, national and international levels.

The most recent contender, Mark Rankin, who came a close second in the National Skills Challenge Final at Woodhall Spa in Lincolnshire, the home of England Golf.

Rankin said: "The competition was a great experience and the day ended with me in a tie for first place, although I lost out after count-back. Despite just missing the top place, I really enjoyed the opportunity to play such a high standard of golf."

"The Wey Valley Scholarship Grant has helped me with the cost of travel and accommodation."

◆ Rebecca Raybould

The 15-year old who hopes to gain a golf scholarship in the USA, also plays for Dorset County Boys U16 and is working towards making the South West England U16 Golf Squad.

Libys McGuinness, who recently competed in the International Poomsae Championships in Ireland, said: "The competition was outstanding and in my division I proudly came eighth competing against others from Great Britain, Ghana, Gibraltar, Ireland and Scotland. Because of that I have been invited back to Ireland to fight later this month."

She also received a contribution from the scholarship grant to help cover the cost of flights, accommodation and entrance fees.

Meanwhile three young cyclists, Rebecca Raybould, Matthew Mildon and Alex Jolliffe continue to represent Team GB. Cycling is a particular strength at Wey Valley and was recognised by the award of the Sustrans Silver Mark Award in June 2014. The school runs numerous extra-curricular cycling activities.

Raybould said: "This year I have competed in almost all the under-16 female national road events. I qualified for the track national finals and finished ninth overall."

She has also been selected to represent the South region in the inter-regional track finals in Glasgow and inter-regional mountain bike final at the Olympic venue.

Phil Thomas, principal of The Wey Valley School said: "The Sports Scholarship Scheme supports students with sporting excellence, and ten youngsters have already benefitted from bursaries to support their participation in regional and national events.

"We are very proud to see our students taking part in these prestigious events, and appreciative of the time those same students reinvest in leading and coaching student activity back at school."

Mark Salmon, Head of PE said: "We also have April Heasman in Year 10, who has recently received a scholarship for table tennis. She is a member of Weymouth Table Tennis club, and now represents her team at county level. The school is lucky to receive amazing support from the students' coaches and PE staff, as well as the parents."

Local football round-up

Wannell red puts Terras on back foot

Histon 3 Weymouth 0

Calor Southern Premier - att: 218
JAKE Wannell's early red card put Weymouth on the back foot as Histon swept to their first win of the season at the Glass World stadium

WRITES STUART BROOM.

The former Grecian who joined Weymouth in the summer was given a straight red card by referee Alan Dale for a professional foul after just three minutes when he brought down Alan Peacock.

Having kept the hosts at bay in a very low key first-half, Tim Sills had a great opportunity to put the Terras ahead a minute before half-time.

His miss was accentuated in added time when Joe Peacock collected James Akintunde's cross and turned and rifled the ball past Jason Matthews.

Captain Stewart Yetton went close to restoring parity three minutes after the break but his shot hit the top of the crossbar.

The Stutes increased their lead on the hour when Matt Lowe finished a great run with superb finish with a shot high into the roof of the net.

Four minutes later Lowe scored a third with a snorter from 20 yards that left Matthews motionless.

Yetton did have a chance of pulling one back when put through on goal but keeper Enol Ordenez foiled him in a one-on-one, whilst Nick Freeman could have added a fourth with a curling shot that just went wide of the post.

Golfers Pink Day a great success

WEYMOUTH Golf Club's sixth annual Pink Day Cancer Charity fund-raiser which took place recently raised in excess of £6,000 taking the total past the magical £50k mark.

The rules required everyone to dress in pink and for each team to include a lady. In the case of no lady player, one of the men must dress as a lady resulting in some very inventive costumes displayed with pink wigs, boas and tutus featuring heavily!

Organiser Dave Picton wished to thank all the people who made it a very special day and to all the participants and sponsors who made the event so successful.

Weymouth earn bragging rights

Weymouth & Portland 38 Dorchester 2nd 18

WEYMOUTH & Portland made it two out of two in the Dorset & Wilts Two (S) with a convincing win over local rivals Dorchester at Monmouth Avenue.

Andy Bowditch gave the Seasiders the lead with an unconverted try, but Dorchester drew level, again the try being unconverted.

Weymouth regained the advantage with Joe Gibson's first try from which Ryan Lewendon added the extras, but Dorchester closed the gap with another try, again unconverted to leave the hosts leading 12-10.

From this point on however Weymouth took command scoring four tries through Bryan Llewellyn, Joel Wilson, Alex

Hawkins and a second from Gibson, with two conversions by Khylo Farley and one from Lewendon, to take a commanding 38-10 lead.

A Dorchester penalty and late unconverted try gave more respectability to the score which ended 38-18 in Weymouth's favour, and see them head the table.

Name change commemorated

WEYMOUTH & Portland RFC unveiled a plaque at the club to mark the clubs change of name.

The plaque will take pride of place in the clubhouse and provide an historical reminder of this important date in the club's history; Weymouth RFC having existed from 1872 until this year's amalgamation with Portland RFC.

The plaque was unveiled by the Honourable Alderman Jess Nagel who also presented some of the Mini & Youth players with training balls which she had kindly sponsored. She was assisted by W&PRFC chairman Ian McMillan.

The event was also attended by Dorset & Wilts president John Constable, past president John Palmer and RFU past president Willie Wildash.

If anybody is interested in sponsoring the club then can they please phone Ian McMillan on 07799-895014, if you are interested in joining our Mini & Youth Section then please call Mike Murphy for more details 07871633985.

Walking football! relive your youth

HAVING retired from playing competitive football, usually because you are now too old and slow, how often have you, when watching a game from the touchline or on television, wished you could be on the pitch and involved.

For years people have been saying to you don't let the brain make promises your body can't keep.

Well now you can with walking football, which allows the older generation to once again be actively involved with the game they love, on the pitch.

With no running allowed, in fact you will be penalised if you run, the game is designed to help people keep an active lifestyle despite their age.

The risk of any serious injury is diminished by the fact it is also a non-contact sport, and is based on 5-a-side rules.

The pitch is no bigger than half size with smaller goals, and a size four football.

Former Netherbury player Dave Symonds is looking to form a group to play on a regular basis, and is asking for people to contact him that might be interested.

The games will be played at the current Ambers pitch on a day to be decided by those wishing to partake.

"I thought it might be a good way for many of us return to our youth but at a slower pace.

"I was thinking maybe a Friday or Sunday morning might appeal, but would like to hear from anybody interested."

If you would like regular exercise at a more sedate pace then you can ring Dave on 01308 862025 or 07779313121.

◆ The walking football idea, which is promoted by adverts on sky tv, is certainly catching on with teams also set to be raised at Lyme Regis and Beer Albion Football clubs.

Bees news

Senior pleased with Bees best to date

Bridport 3 Shepton Mallett 2

Toolstation Premier – att: 83

BRIDPORT fought back last Tuesday evening to take three points in what manager Trevor Senior described as their best performance of the season to date.

The Bees had stung their visitors with a goal inside the first minute when Jamie Symes scored, converting Warren Byerley's cross after he had been put through by Adam Symes.

However, Adam Symes turned from provider to sinner when he conceded a spot kick on 18 minutes and the victim Tyson Pollard, picked himself up to fire the spot kick past Ashley Weeks.

Shepton then took the lead on 35 minutes when Weeks spilled an angled shot-come-cross to the near post by Dave Thorne, and Dave Stone nipped in to knock the ball in from close range.

However parity was restored immediately as straight from the kick-off Tom Richardson headed home Dan Wise's cross.

Bridport's winner came six minutes after the restart when Chris Clarke lashed the ball home after the Mallett defence failed to clear a corner.

Keeper Steve Phillips then denied Byerley with a great save to stop the Bees extending their lead.

Senior said: "We played really well, probably the best we have played for 90 minutes all season.

"It was a good all-round performance in which we defended well and Tom and Warren up front worked hard.

"We could have been two or three up before they scored, but we fought back well after going behind to claim three good points."

Townsend concerned by lack of desire

Bridport Reserves 1
Shaftesbury Town 2

BRIDPORT Reserves inconsistency showed once again leaving manager Robin Townsend frustrated and not for the first time.

The Bees showed they have the ability after a stunning performance against Weymouth Reserves recently.

But lack of commitment to training and a desire on the field saw them go down again against a side they should have beaten.

Whilst the Bees boss accepts that as the back up to the first team, the personnel are going to change almost weekly, and that he will never have a settled side.

However, he feels that nothing will change because it is the same squad of players that have been around for a while, and old habits die-hard.

Both goals conceded were as a result of errors. The first came after poor defending from a corner on 35 minutes when Rob Froud reacted quickest to a header to score.

The second was the result of a lack of desire by certain players to close people down after losing the ball.

As a result Jason Beale had time to control the ball and pick his spot with a 25-yard shot that flew past the unsighted Jamie Fry who had no time to react.

In between Ben Clarke scored an exquisite goal just after the hour to equalise, beating four players in a mazy run before stroking the ball home.

Townsend said: "We were the better side and should have won.

"It is annoying after playing well but only taking a point against top teams like Portland United and Parley Sports and then losing, with all due with respect, to teams like Wareham, Merley Cobham and Shaftesbury.

However, if we do not have the desire to put our bodies on the line like other sides or close sides down then we are going to pay for it.

"If players do not train then that is going to catch up with them on the field. It's not their ability; it's the lack of fitness and desire from some of the players that needs to change."

Father and son team up to take title

THIS year's West Bay Sea Angling Club autumn open boat match was fished in perfect conditions with light winds and a good tide.

The fishing in Lyme Bay has been very poor all summer so competitors were hoping for some better fish this time around.

This competition was fished as a team match, with the average score of the team counting towards prizes.

Twenty anglers, split into teams of two or three, set off for the day and returned with some nice fish including, bass, black bream, gurnard, pollock, plaice, mackerel and a surprise john dory.

Team Miss Grace consisting of father and son Rod and James Barr took first place with an average percentage of 138 per cent; both anglers weighing in a black bream and a red gurnard each, with Rod's red gurnard a specimen of 101 per cent, the best of the day.

Team Wahoo comprising Graham Stephenson, Rob Stephenson and Steve Chambers took second place; scoring an average of 118 per cent which included some nice bream, bass and pollack.

Brian Moss, Jack Wood and Darren Herbert (Team Pilchard) took third with an average of 109 per cent; Moss catching a cracking mackerel of 885g and Wood following with a plaice of 1600g.

Full result: 1st: Team Miss Grace 138 per cent; 2nd Team: Wahoo 118; 3rd: Team Pilchard 109; 4th: Team Seamouse 73; 5th: Team One Eyed Wonder 67; 6th: Team Sharon & Tracey 57, Most species: Rod Barr; 3 species on tie break, Round fish pool: Rod Barr; red gurnard 101 per cent, Flat fish pool: Jack Wood; plaice 78 per cent.

Blues feast after last week's famine

Bridport 76 North Dorset 3rd 13

AFTER last week's famine when Bridport narrowly beat New Milton 2nd's 6-5, this week it was a feast as the Blues ran in 12 tries, eight converted, past a hard working, but outclassed North Dorset 3rds.

North Dorset replied with two unconverted tries and a penalty to make the final score a breathless 76-13.

Bridport were in the points within four minutes, with a move that characterised the rest of the game; Rory Greening scoring and converting after some sustained pressure and excellent ball handling. He went on to add two more tries and seven more conversions.

Scrum-half Oliver Everitt added a second, finding space and taking out three defenders on the way to the line, en route to claiming four excellent tries. He and No 8, Mike Pibworth, combined very effectively throughout the game, the latter constantly creating opportunities from which others prospered.

success from set pieces

There were two fleet footed tries for captain Dave Cutting, a smart pick up and score from Pete Phillips, a text book line out and drive, put down by Ayo Fraser and a storming run to the line from Callum Barnes.

The set pieces went to plan this week, and strong forward play gave a decent platform to the three quarters to show what they could do.

There was a small blot on the Bridport copy-book with some indiscipline leading to a penalty in front of the posts and three points to the visitors.

Perhaps a little complacency also crept in as Bridport began to lose possession in open play. Smart kicking by North Dorset enabled their very swift right wing to chase down and score twice in succession. Both conversions were missed.

That was to be it though, for the visitors. Bridport tightened things up and rarely looked in any danger from then on.

Dan Down was awarded Man-of-the-Match for a superb performance all around the park at No 7.

The win sees Bridport second in Dorset & Wilts Two (S). This Saturday they visit Wimborne 3rd's.

MERLEY scored twice in the last five minutes to seal the points after coming from behind three times.

Mark Ford gave the Terras the lead in the eighth minute but Aaron Atkinson equalised for the visitors seven minutes later. Sean Zima restored the hosts lead ten minutes before the break, but the lead didn't last long as Grant Cormack made it 2-2 in the 39th minute.

With 17 minutes left Ford scored his second to give the Terras the lead again only for Stuart Cannie to level with four minutes left.

Then, in a dramatic finish, Atkinson scored his second to seal a superb win for the visitors.

BLANDFORD UNITED 4
PORTLAND UNITED 4 AET
(Portland won 4-2 on pens)

League positions went out of the window as bottom placed Blandford took Portland all the way in this pulsating cup-tie.

Paul Ford opened for the Royals in the sixth minute. Ross Doidge equalised for the visitors only for Ford to restore the lead in the 25th minute.

Blandford gifted the Islanders a second equaliser on 41 minutes courtesy of an own goal to leave it all square at the break.

Portland finally got their noses in front through Adam Linaker's strike in the 71st minute, but the hosts refused to lie down and got themselves level through Rob Manson in the final minute to take the game into extra-time.

Ford completed his hat-trick to put the hosts back in front in the 106th minute only for Ashley Smith to equalise taking the game into penalties.

Blandford missed two of their first three and with Portland converting all theirs, they progressed, to the first round of the League Cup.

Bridport Bowls

Successful season draws to an end with friendlies

BRIDPORT Bowling Club ended a very successful season which brought plenty of silverware, with a busy week of friendlies which saw them win two, but going down in the last one.

They started by beating COMBE MARTIN 113-97, winning three and drawing two of the six rinks with Fred Pomeroy, Paul Tibble, Janet Bird and Peter Carnel's 25-9 win the best result.

Next, touring side FAREHAM on their way home from Torquay. With three drawn and two rinks losing, it was the margin of victory by the Bridport's rinks that gave them victory 141-117 overall; Brian Rumble, Ian Newitt, Mary Corfield and Liz Neumann 26-15 victory making them top rink.

The last match however saw the hosts go down 119-134 against HEAVITREE, also on their way home from touring. Bridport won only three of the seven rinks with top rink being Keith Brooks, Sheila Jones, Michael Higman and Brian Pratt 25-9.

Saturday saw the traditional end of season mixed teams representing the Ladies and Men's Captains which provided a tigh finish in favour of the Ladies Captain 140-130.

Their top rink was Keith Brooks, Laura Taylor, Janet Bird and Jerry Apted, whilst Tom Tocher, Jan Tattershall, Mary Corfield and Max Dare were the best Men's Captain's rink.

Dorchester too strong

BRIDPORT & West Dorset Indoor Bowls Club played host to local rivals Dorchester, going down 63-73 overall.

Nova Varney, Barbara Jenkins, John Davies and Phil Hedges were the only winning rink. Despite dropping counts of 3,4, and 1 on the last three ends they still won comfortably by 21-14.

Lyn Sandall, Peter Varney, Brian Baker and Mary Hansford were trailing 3-11 early on, but hit a purple patch to lead 15-11.

However their opponents took control again to lead 21-18, but Hansford's quartet scrapped a draw with a three count on the final end.

Sylvia Fletcher, Pete Sandall, Jill Harding and Mike Fletcher scored a four on their final end to minimise their loss to 13-16, but Gerry Moss, Erica Sarsen, Barry Mapson and Keith Jenkins were up against a crack four and a dropped seven count sent them to a 8-22 defeat.

Bridport Skittles League

ENTRIES for all individuals, pairs, threes and fours competitions will be accepted up until this Sunday (September 28th). Entry forms can be found in the league fixture book.

Sophie polishes off title

LOCAL golfer Sophie Keech was given a "wild card" entry, in recognition of her World Ranking, to the recent Polish Junior Championship, part of the World Junior Golf Tournament Series (WJGTS) held in Wroclaw where entries included 55 players from 15 different countries.

Sophie's first round got off to a positive start with a birdie at the hardest ranked par 5, 2nd hole.

She finished the day one over par and a two shot lead in the girls' championship field.

Day two started with a delay due to the course being enveloped by fog.

But the delay had done nothing to dampen Sophie's game as she ended on top of the leader board by six shots.

The pin positions were far tougher on the third and final day and the heavy rain on the previous days meant the course was playing much longer.

However, Sophie birdied the first hole and at halfway was one under for the day and eight shots ahead of the field.

She then birdied both the par 3, 11th and the par 5, 15th. There was a large crowd waiting to cheer her in as champion on the 18th hole with an overall score of 3 under, a hugely impressive winning margin of 12 shots.

As the boys' competition came in with a winning score of 2 under, Sophie was declared the overall winner of the Championship.

Beaminster beaten by Bowditch strike

Beaminster 2 Waytown Hounds 3

WAYTOWN Hounds recorded a memorable victory over their higher league opponents in the first semi-final of the Edwards Charity Cup played under the floodlights at Bridport FC on Thursday evening.

After an even but goalless first-half the game sprung into life after 52 minutes when Matt Read slipped the ball through the Rainbows defence to Jon Legg, the former Charmouth marksman, who coolly slotted home from the edge of the penalty area giving keeper Ben Fleet no chance.

Cool finish

Beaminster were immediately stung into action and equalised within two minutes through striker Greg Channing who cleverly lobbed Hounds keeper Lee Cuff.

At that stage it appeared as though Beaminster would seize the initiative and overpower the Hounds, but Waytown were up for the battle and defended doggedly breaking quickly with dangerous counter-attacks.

It was from one of those quick breaks that they took the lead once again on 65 minutes when Fleet could only palm away Read's fierce shot and Paul Watkins was on hand to knock in the rebound.

Beaminster responded with concerted attacks as the Waytown players began to tire. The pace of the Rainbows attacks down the left flank created good opportunities to equalise before former Chard Town and Misterton man Channing popped up again to restore parity with 15 minutes remaining.

Beaminster stormed forward in search of the winner, hitting the post with one good effort and sending a free header from a corner over the bar.

As players struggled with cramp the game became very open but to everyone's surprise Waytown mustered the energy for one more foray into the Beaminster half.

Keeper Fleet could only parry a strong shot from Legg and, with his team mates committed to attack, was left with little support allowing Nat Bowditch to scramble home a winner in the 87th minute and send the Waytown camp into delirium.

Manager Mark Hughes said: "This was one of the best team performances I have seen from a Hounds side, but I was particularly pleased with Ryan Harwood who is back with us after a couple of seasons away from football."

Waytown will now meet the winners of the other semi-final between Lyme Regis and Bridport Under 18s in their first ever Edwards Charity Cup final, the Seaside and young Bees meeting tomorrow (Thursday 25th) at Bridport FC KO 7.30pm.

◆ The Edwards Charity Cup is an historical competition that was revived by the Bridport and District Community Football partnership (BFP) in 2011-12.

It is a competition for the area's junior teams providing them with an opportunity to compete under floodlights at Bridport FC.

The BFP is charity set up to improve opportunities for local people to play football and to improve facilities within the town.

It was responsible for the funding and construction of the changing rooms at St Mary's Playing fields and regularly hosts Dorset FA coaching courses for local people.

Broadwindsor claim title again

Broadwindsor 173-4 beat

Queen Camel 144 all out by 29 runs

BROADWINDSOR are champions of the Mid-Wessex League Division ONE for a third time in four years.

They went into Sunday's game with a 17-point advantage over their opponents Queen Camel, and needing just four points to become champions for the second successive year.

The visitors, a young and energetic side, won the toss and asked the hosts to bat, and soon had them in trouble at 38-4.

However, an unbeaten fifth wicket stand of 135 turned the tide Broadwindsor's way as Dan Hillier with 66 not out and an unbeaten half-century from Richie Runyard saw them able to post a reasonable target of 174 to win, and also earn enough batting points to win the title.

Queen Camel kept up with the run rate, particularly through captain Paul Worton (68), but they lost wickets regularly as all the home bowlers struck.

Captain Ade Phillips led the way with 3-29, and he was well backed up by Jack Walklett (2-20), Runyard (2-30) and Murray Legg (2-40) as the visitors were finally bowled out for 144.

Opener Steve Phillips who has had a great season with the bat said: "It has probably been our most satisfying title because we were unable to play the same side two weeks running, and so to maintain the form we have speaks volumes for all the squad of players."

Speedsters back to Charmouth for hill climb

CHANNEL Islanders Adrian and Brian Moody will return to Charmouth for the Manor Farm speed hill climb this weekend (September 27th /28th) with their Ralt RT3, where the father and son combination will be seeking overall victory. However they will have to face the challenge of the experienced Stuart Browne from Chard in his OMS SF2.

The fourth Woolbridge Motor Club event at Manor Farm Holiday Park, once again sponsored by the View From newspapers, has attracted a quality entry across the various classes which range from road-going cars, through modified categories to single-seater racing cars including a 12 strong class of 500 cc racing cars the ilk of which Stirling Moss developed his skills, which include Tim Sage from Bridport at the wheel of his Cooper-Jap Mk2.

The Rally car class sees Craig Moore from Lyme Regis take his Ford Cortina GT up against the rapid Darrian T90 pilot from Wimborne, Tim Porter. Both drivers have held the class record at Manor Farm so a fierce battle for supremacy is in prospect. Craig's son Ryan will compete in a Ford Puma he purchased a few weeks ago from a neighbour.

Recent Wiscombe Park class winner Stewart Green will be seeking similar glory in the Road-going Specialist Production car class in his Sylva Riot.

The Frampton driver's main opposition is likely to come from the Megabus powered Westfield of Adrian Lewis, whilst Weymouth Westfield father and son duo, Graham and Geoff Blake will be in action with their Vauxhall powered machine in the Modified Specialist Production car category.

Of particular interest to those who favour cars from yesteryear will be Rory Weaver's Riley 1.5.

The Weymouth driver will take his sixties machine up against more contemporary opposition in the Road Going category which in the Saturday event includes the Mazda MX5 of Dorchester driver Merv Brake.

The following day Kevin Joy will face the rapid Honda Integra of George Koopman in the 1800cc to 2600cc capacity split of the Road-going Series Production car class in his two-litre four-wheel drive turbo Saabro Impreza.

This promises once again to be an exciting days racing and a good day out for the family.

Admission to this spectacular event is just £6 per day Saturday and Sunday with children under 14 admitted free. Gates open 10am.

There is free car parking with free transfer to the competitor's enclosure and there is catering available onsite.

Biddlecombe announced he was standing down as chairman on Saturday following a vote of no confidence from the board, although he is still an elected board member, and is now considering his position.

In the meantime the club announced Pugsley, an accountant and former chairman of Dorchester Town, as the new chairman.

Meanwhile the club announced a profit of £12,438 for 2012-13 at their recent Annual General Meeting which was chaired by the then chairman Biddlecombe.
